

COLLEGIATE WEEKEND BREAKOUTS, FEBRUARY 22

BREAKOUT 1 | 10:30AM

BREAKOUT 2 | 11:30AM

Finding God's Will

Breakout 1: Finding God's Will: Where should I go and what should I do with my life? (Room 221)

Breakout 2: Following God's Will: How do I get there? (Room 221)

Dr. Clayton Cloer, President, Baptist University of Florida

You Can Share Jesus! (Room 222)

Kegan Shoemaker, Student and College Pastor at LifePointe Church

God wants to use you to reach people for Jesus and it's easier than you think! This session will help you see how God will help you reach your friends and family for Jesus with practical methods and tips that work for anyone.

A Deeper Walk With Christ (Room 224)

Steve Loy, Associate Director of Missions, East Central Baptist Network

Why am I making so little progress in my Christian life and why is it that I see so little fruit from my Christian labor? Could it be the neglect of an effective devotional and prayer life? These are two of the questions that will be answered in this breakout.

The Prep for Marriage You Do in College (Room 225e)

Jeff and Shannon McLaughlin

Jeff and Shannon lead an engaging and practical breakout on relationships from a Christian perspective, with valuable insights for building strong, Christ-centered connections.

Persuasive Apologetics

Breakout 1: Tactics & Smokescreens - When the Issue isn't Really the Issue (Auditorium)

Breakout 2: Undercutting Defeaters - How Jesus Leveraged Logic (Auditorium)

Jeff Robinson, Lead Pastor, Grace Fellowship

Leveraging Your Vocation in a Strategic Location (Room 231)

Jon Chasteen, Director of Next Gen. Mobilization, North American Mission Board

This seminar is designed to help you see your career as a platform for taking the gospel to a strategic place where churches are being planted. Integrating faith and work, you can make intentional decisions about where and how you live out your calling.

Step Forward: Leveraging Your Life for the Mission (Room 232)

Scott Carter, Church Planting Catalyst, Send Florida

Leverage your life for the mission. Discover how to align your passions, gifts, career, and daily life with God's greater purpose, embracing His mission in every aspect of life.

Your Move - Looking at the Three C's: Conflict, Comparison, & Commitment (Room 234)

Sarah Farley-Beall, Next Gen. Strategist, International Mission Board

These are three major issues that can sabotage your relationships and future opportunities. So, let's talk about some tools and best practices to set you up for the ability to tackle all three of these and set you up for success.

Identity, Calling, and Career (Room 235)

Colin Rhodes, Director, Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Florida Atlantic University

Your identity, calling, and career all work together, but it's easy to get these three tangled up! Come to this workshop to learn about connecting these three aspects of life in a healthy, Biblical way, and to begin building a roadmap for the first few years after college.

Digital Reformation: Apprenticeship to Jesus as Digital Natives (Room 236)

Addam Setzer, Ministry Resident, North Central Baptist Church

How does Jesus' wisdom lead us to change our digital addictions?

Why Truth Matters (Room 238)

Joe Jones, Director, Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Florida Agricultural & Mechanical Univ.

I Kings 13:11-25. Why did the old prophet lie to the young prophet? Why did the young prophet disobey the word of God? What are the consequences of disobeying God?" We'll study this passage and these questions in this breakout.
